Dr. H.C. Burleigh, U.E.
Apt. 507, 33 Ontario Street,
KINGSTON, Ontario,

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

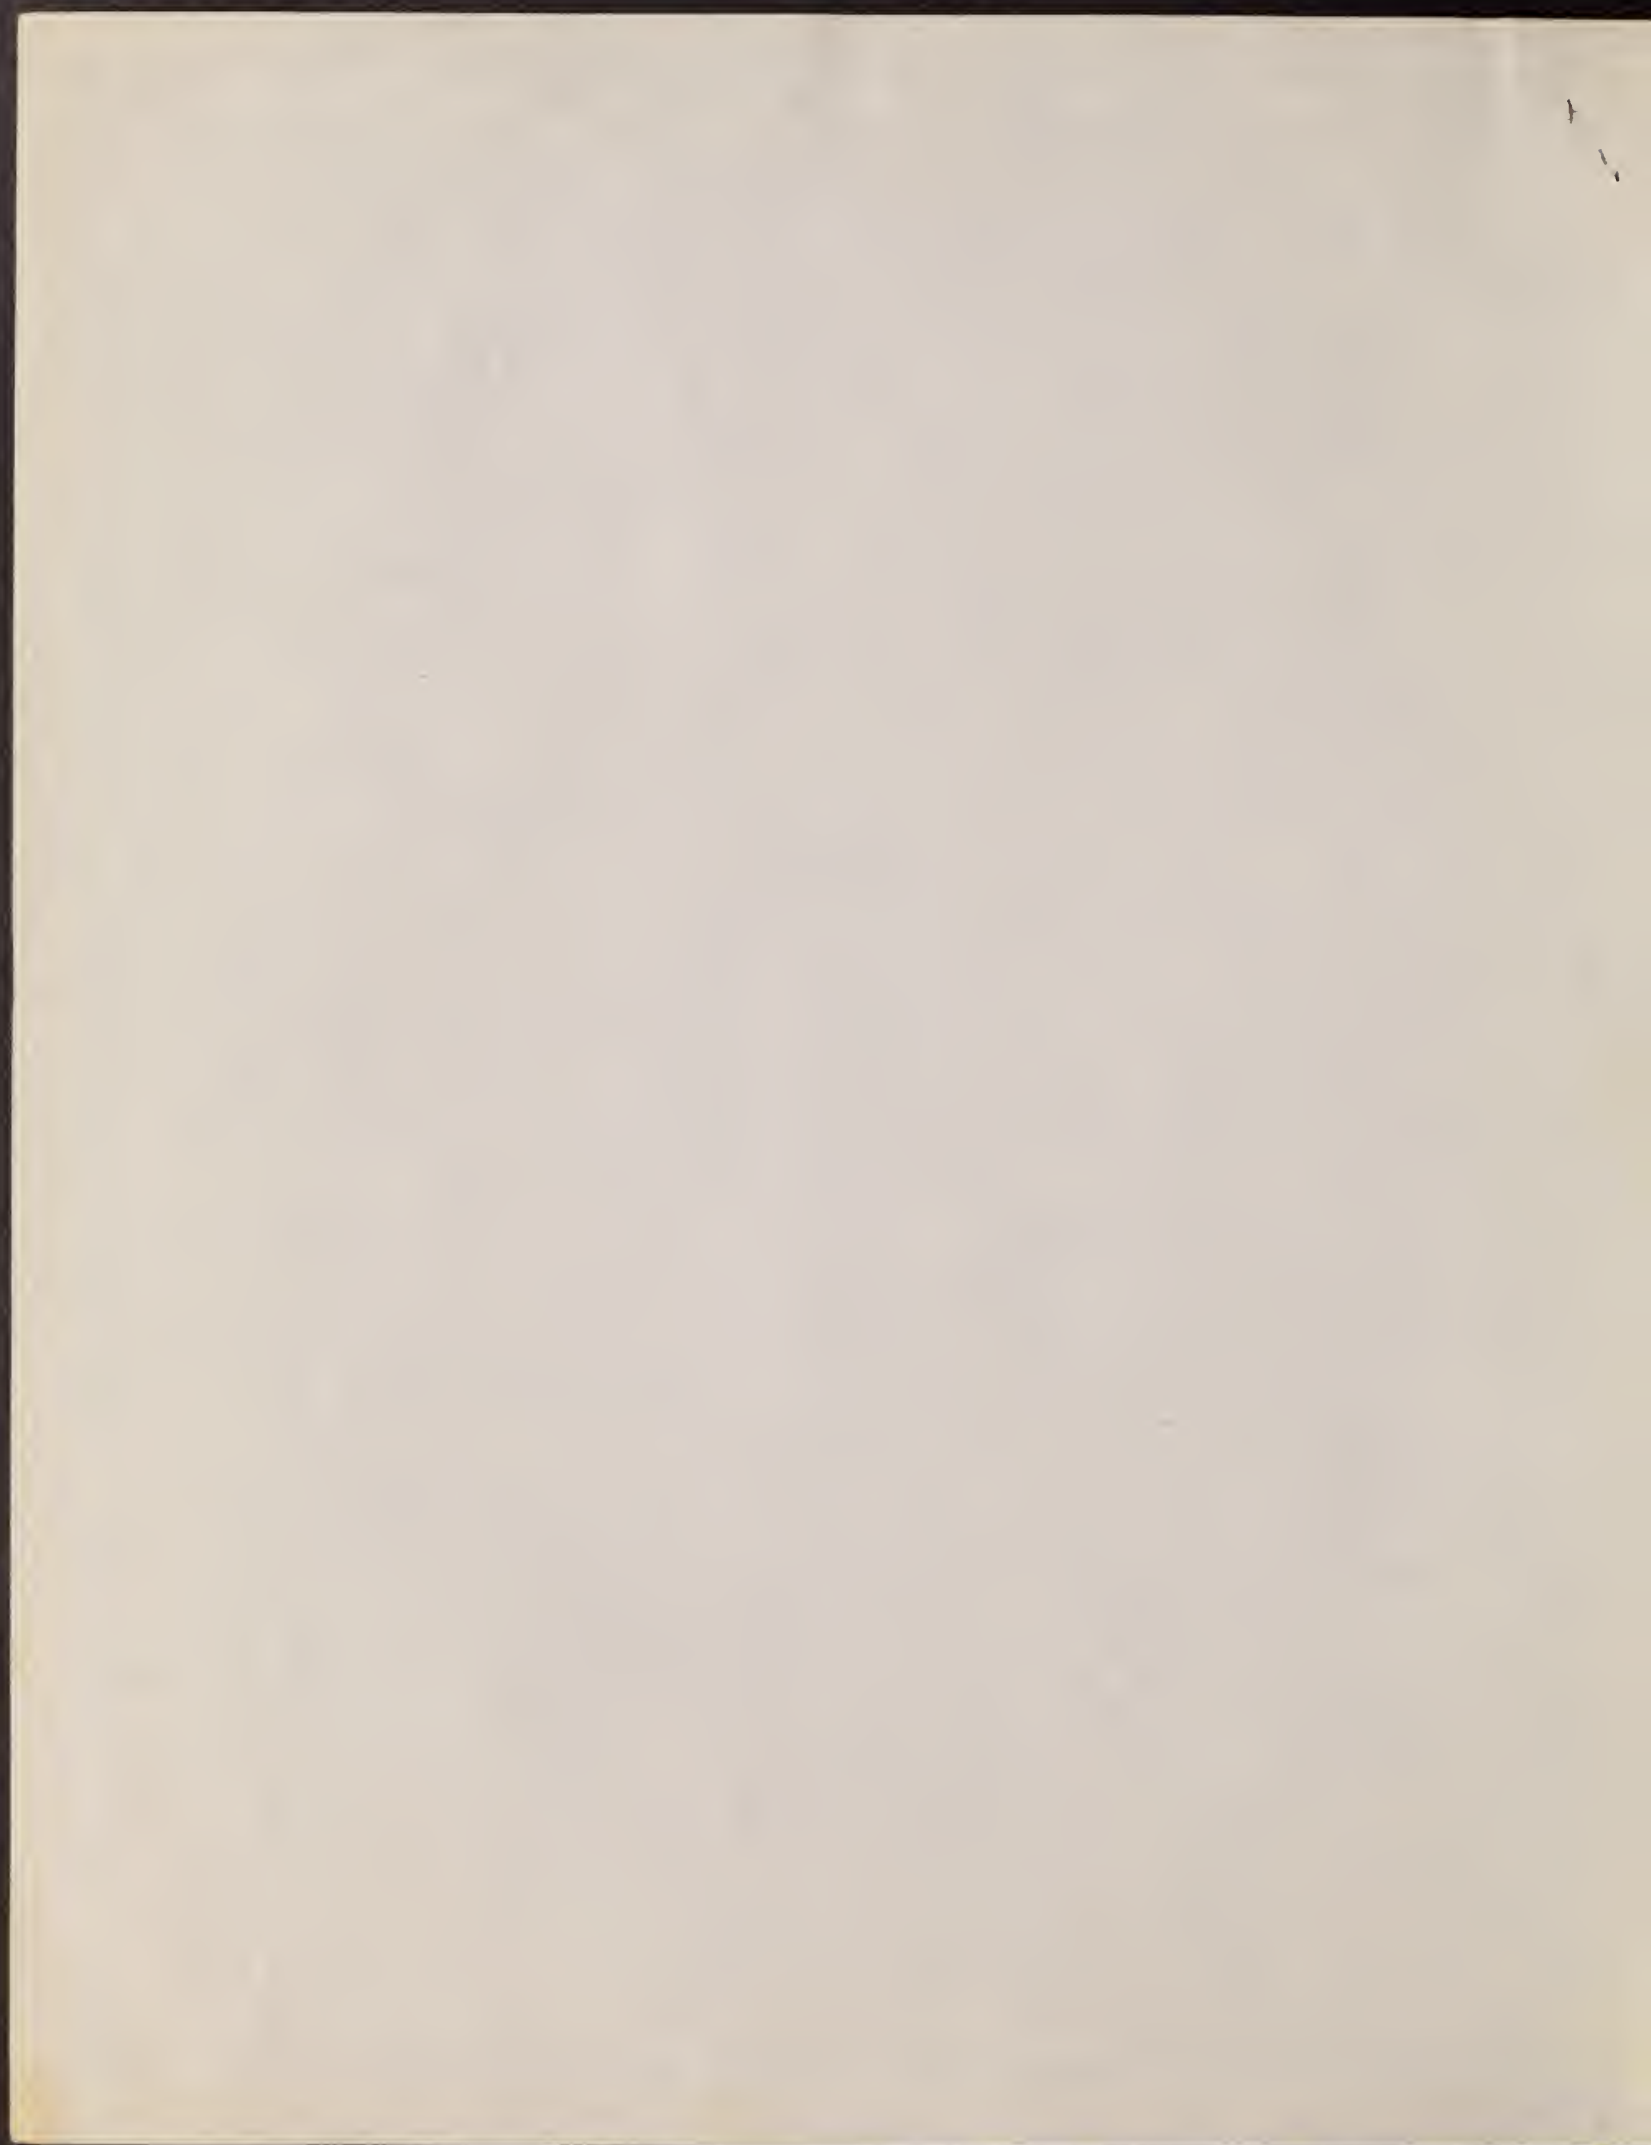

Thank you very much for your Christmas good wishes received 17 December last.

For the record, it was I who owed you a letter, as I had heard from you just prior to my leaving for the East last June.

You will have been advised by now, of the death of Dean Babcock, which occurred Friday evening 3 December 1976. Dean had suffered a seizure the previous Monday while attempting to put a new motor in his furnace at home and his widow Laura told me when she phoned that Saturday morning that he suffered much pain during the week. My wife Mary and I attended the service at the Chapel of the Chimes and interment in Edmonton Cemetery.

It goes without saying that I will miss his cheerful presence very much indeed; he and I had made tentative plans for a trip to the East this coming summer, by CNR. I expect to be going myself probably for the month of July and will go by CNR as far as Kingston and there I expect to rent a car for a trip down the Mohawk and the Hudson and across from the Ossining/Bedford area to the Lebanon area in Connecticut and the Springfield/North ~~Hampton~~ area of Massachusetts.

While in Lebanon last July researching the family of Capt Seth Wright I discovered that he had drawn sword, as a Patriot at the Lexington Alarm and that he was considered to be "one of Lebanon's most patriotic and representative citizens". With this information added to the documentary proof that I have accumulated concerning my direct descent from Capt Seth Wright I have made application for membership as a "non-American-citizen" in the Sons of the American Revolution; I could be justifiably as proud of such membership as I am of my membership in the United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada.

4 January 1977

My application has already been recommended and "second-sponsored" and I have been advised by the Society's one-time President that "there should be no obstacle to its moving along at the usual slow pace".

As a matter of interest I noticed, while in the Old Yard Cemetery at Lebanon Crank that the graves of Capt Seth Wright and of one of his sons, Charles, and one of his sons-in-law, Samuel Barstow, all three of whom served during the American Revolution with the American Revolutionary Army, had not been decorated with miniature American flags on Memorial Day as many others in the cemetery had, so I have written to the committee in charge of such decorations in Columbia to ask them to set aright this oversight.

It is interesting to note also that my letter from the past President was typed on stationery of the Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Connecticut, of which my correspondent James R. Case is the Grand Historian. I replied to his letter telling him that as I also travel to the East my next trip in that direction will be next July.

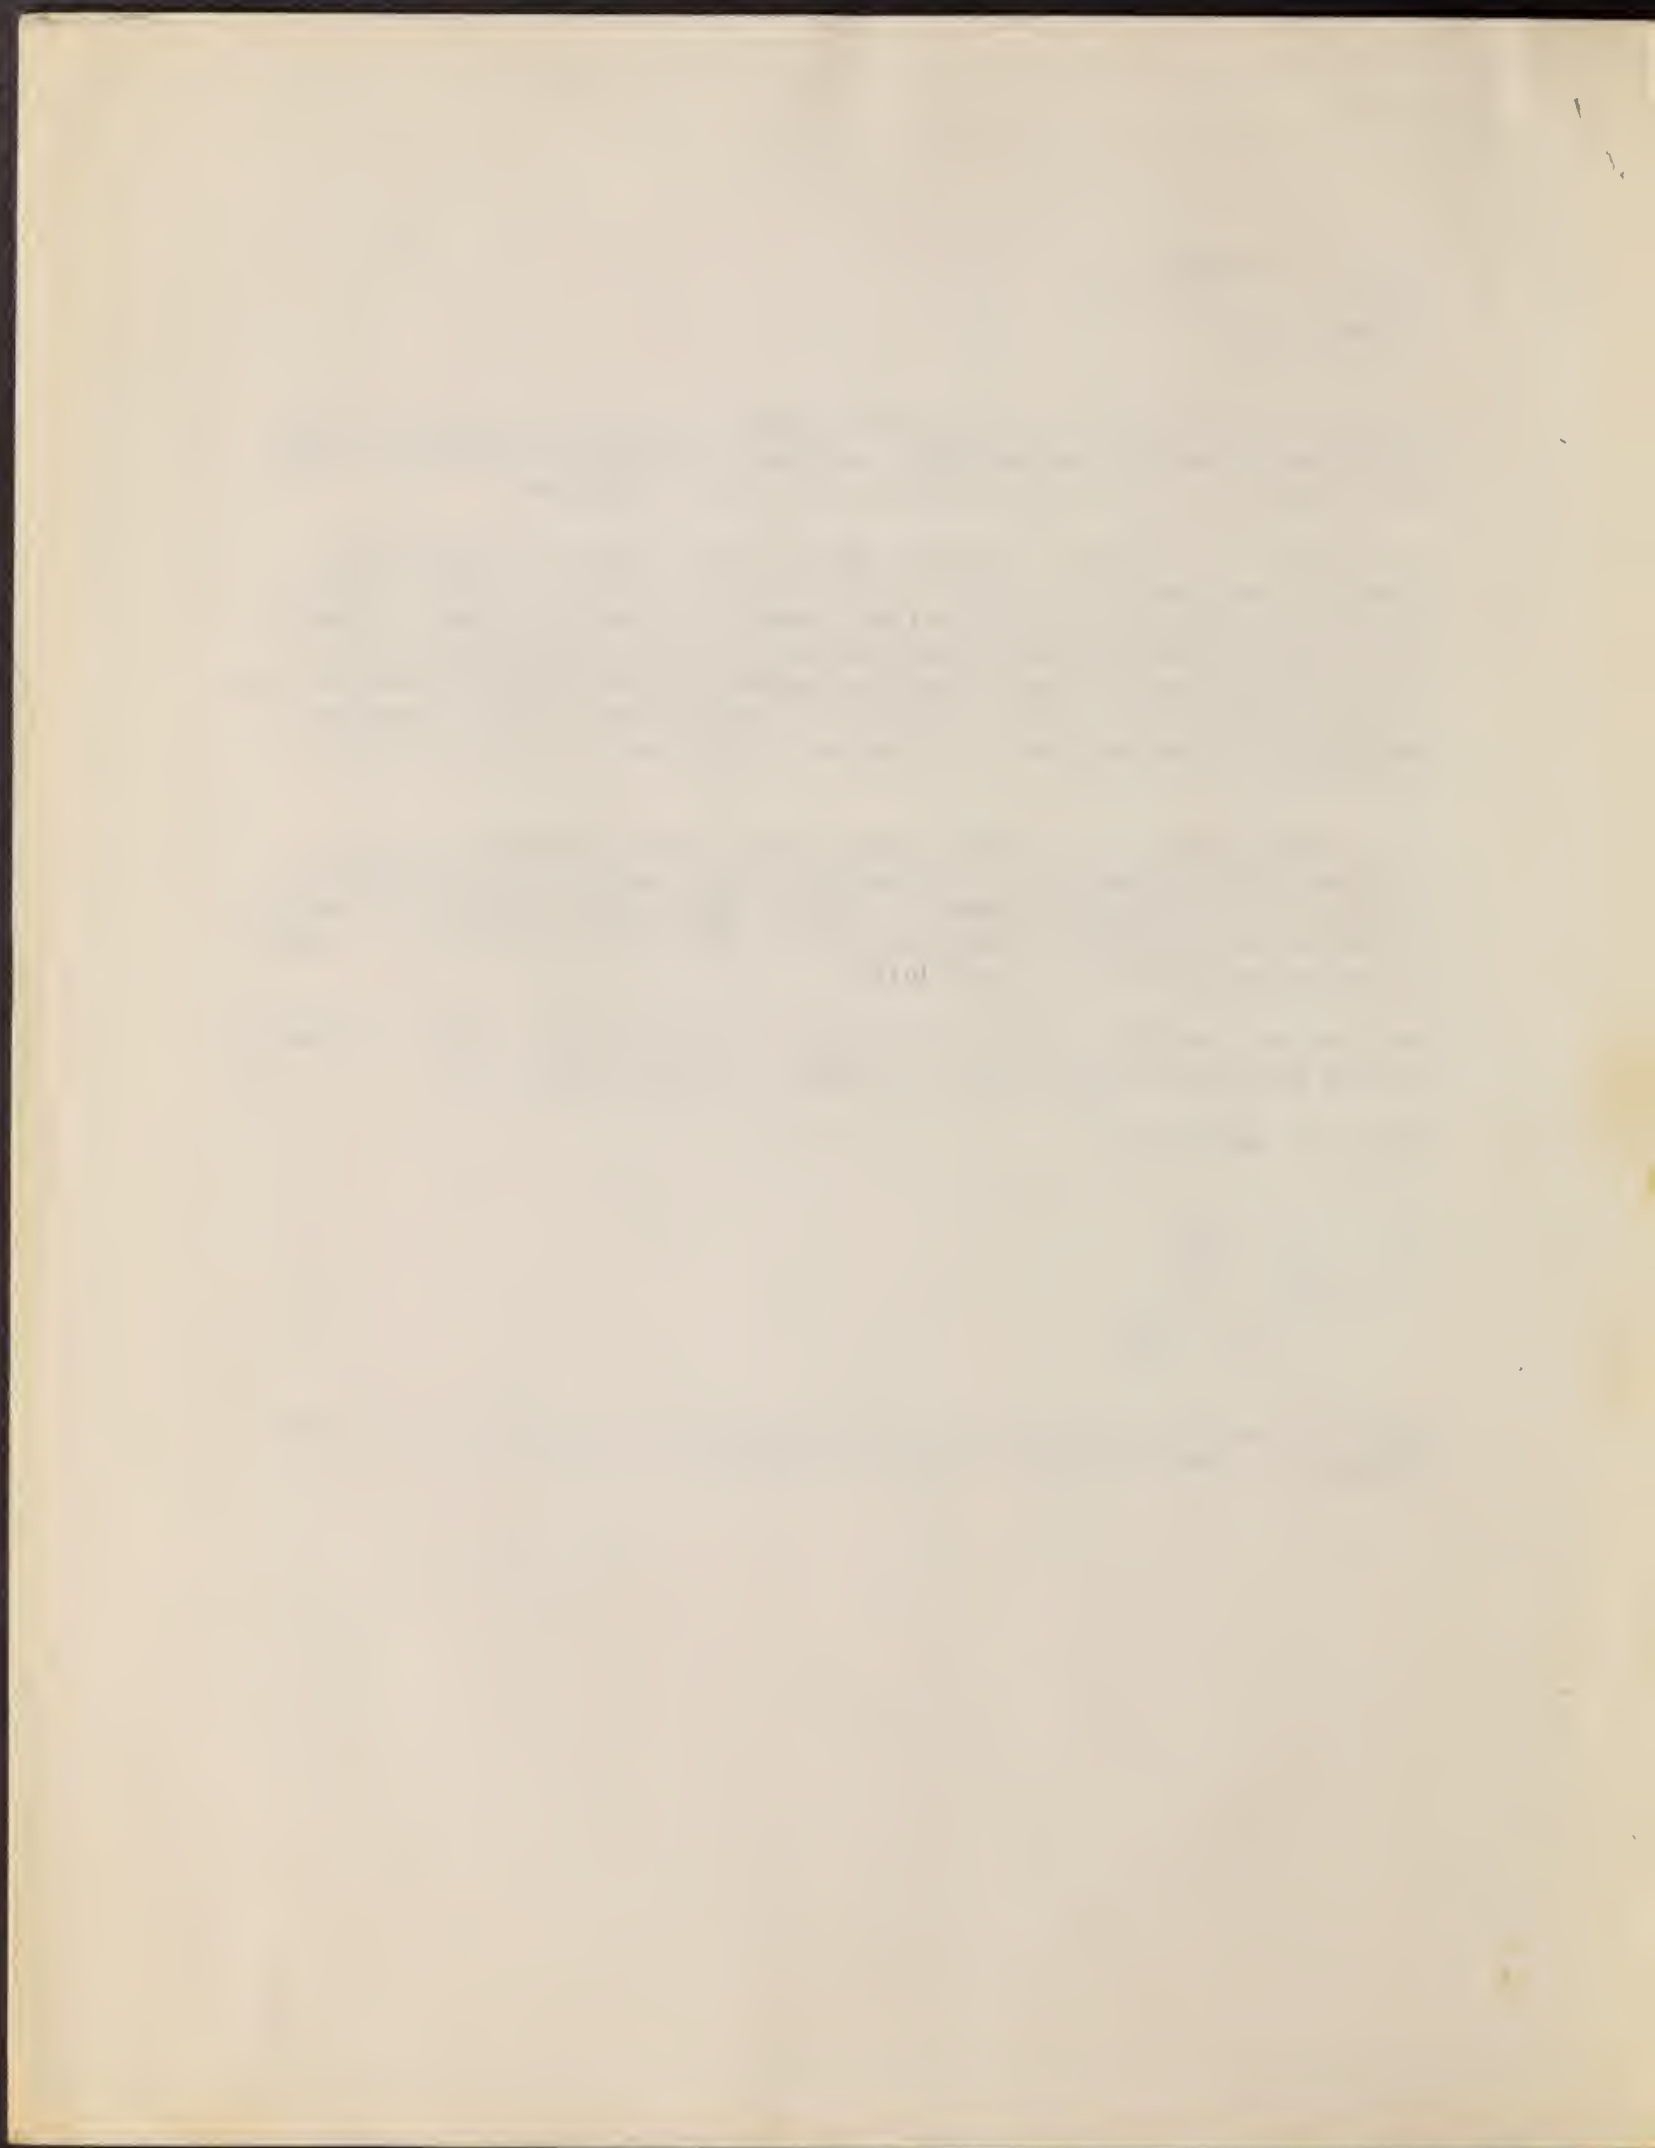

And that, dear Doctor, is about all my news at the moment. Mary joins me in sending New Year's good wishes to both you and your good wife.

Sincerely and loyally,

P.S.-- I am glad to hear that you are still writing, particularly about "forgotten events"; perhaps I should do some of the same.

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

Your nice letter of 7 September arrived this morning. Thank you for the information concerning Harriet daughter of Samuel Wright of Hallowell.

The Wrights of that area are not among those that I'm researching, although they are descended from our common ancestor (Deacon) Samuel Wright, quondam resident of Kelvedon, Co. Essex, England.
Keep on trying though, as the last time you gave me any information you hit the jackpot: Mary (Wright) Draycott of Ernestown was the daughter of my great great grandfather Abiel Wright of Kingston, Belleville & Ernestown.

Incidentally I'm still attempting to discover the burial place of Abiel and his widow Hannah (Abbott) Wright, who both died "on the farm" west of Orkney.

Are you going to do any research now that you've retired? If you are I've a thing or two to look into at the County Registry Office which Mrs Rhea Funnell doesn't want to do for me there, as she apparently thinks I'm trying to get that staff to do my research, when in reality I've given them the request: all they've to do is find a particular entry and Xerox it for me (at .50 per page!)

At any rate, please let me know, doctor, as there could be a remuneration for you in that connection!

You'd asked about Dean Babcock: you probably will have seen him before you get this letter, as he left for Kingston, by car, a few days ago - to finish up his uncompleted work in that area. He had been taken ill during his last visit in May and did have to cut short his stay there: but drove all the way home!!

Sean hasn't been too well all summer, but he's a little better and "won't let go". I still see him at least once weekly, and perhaps our next visit will be 2 weeks from tonight when our local Chapter of the Alberta Genealogical Society begins its Fall meeting. We are giving a series of 6 lectures to the public in the new series given through and by the University of Alberta - at the Museum here, and I am reading my lecture, which is the final one of the series. My subject will be the preparation of family trees and their publication and printing. Apparently people like the one I did for my family on my return from the East last May! (A copy of this, if you are interested, is at the Kingston Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society. And that's that for now, Doctor; please write again soon, and let me know about the possibility of your continuing to research. Loyally, I am for S. W. W. H.

POLLARD

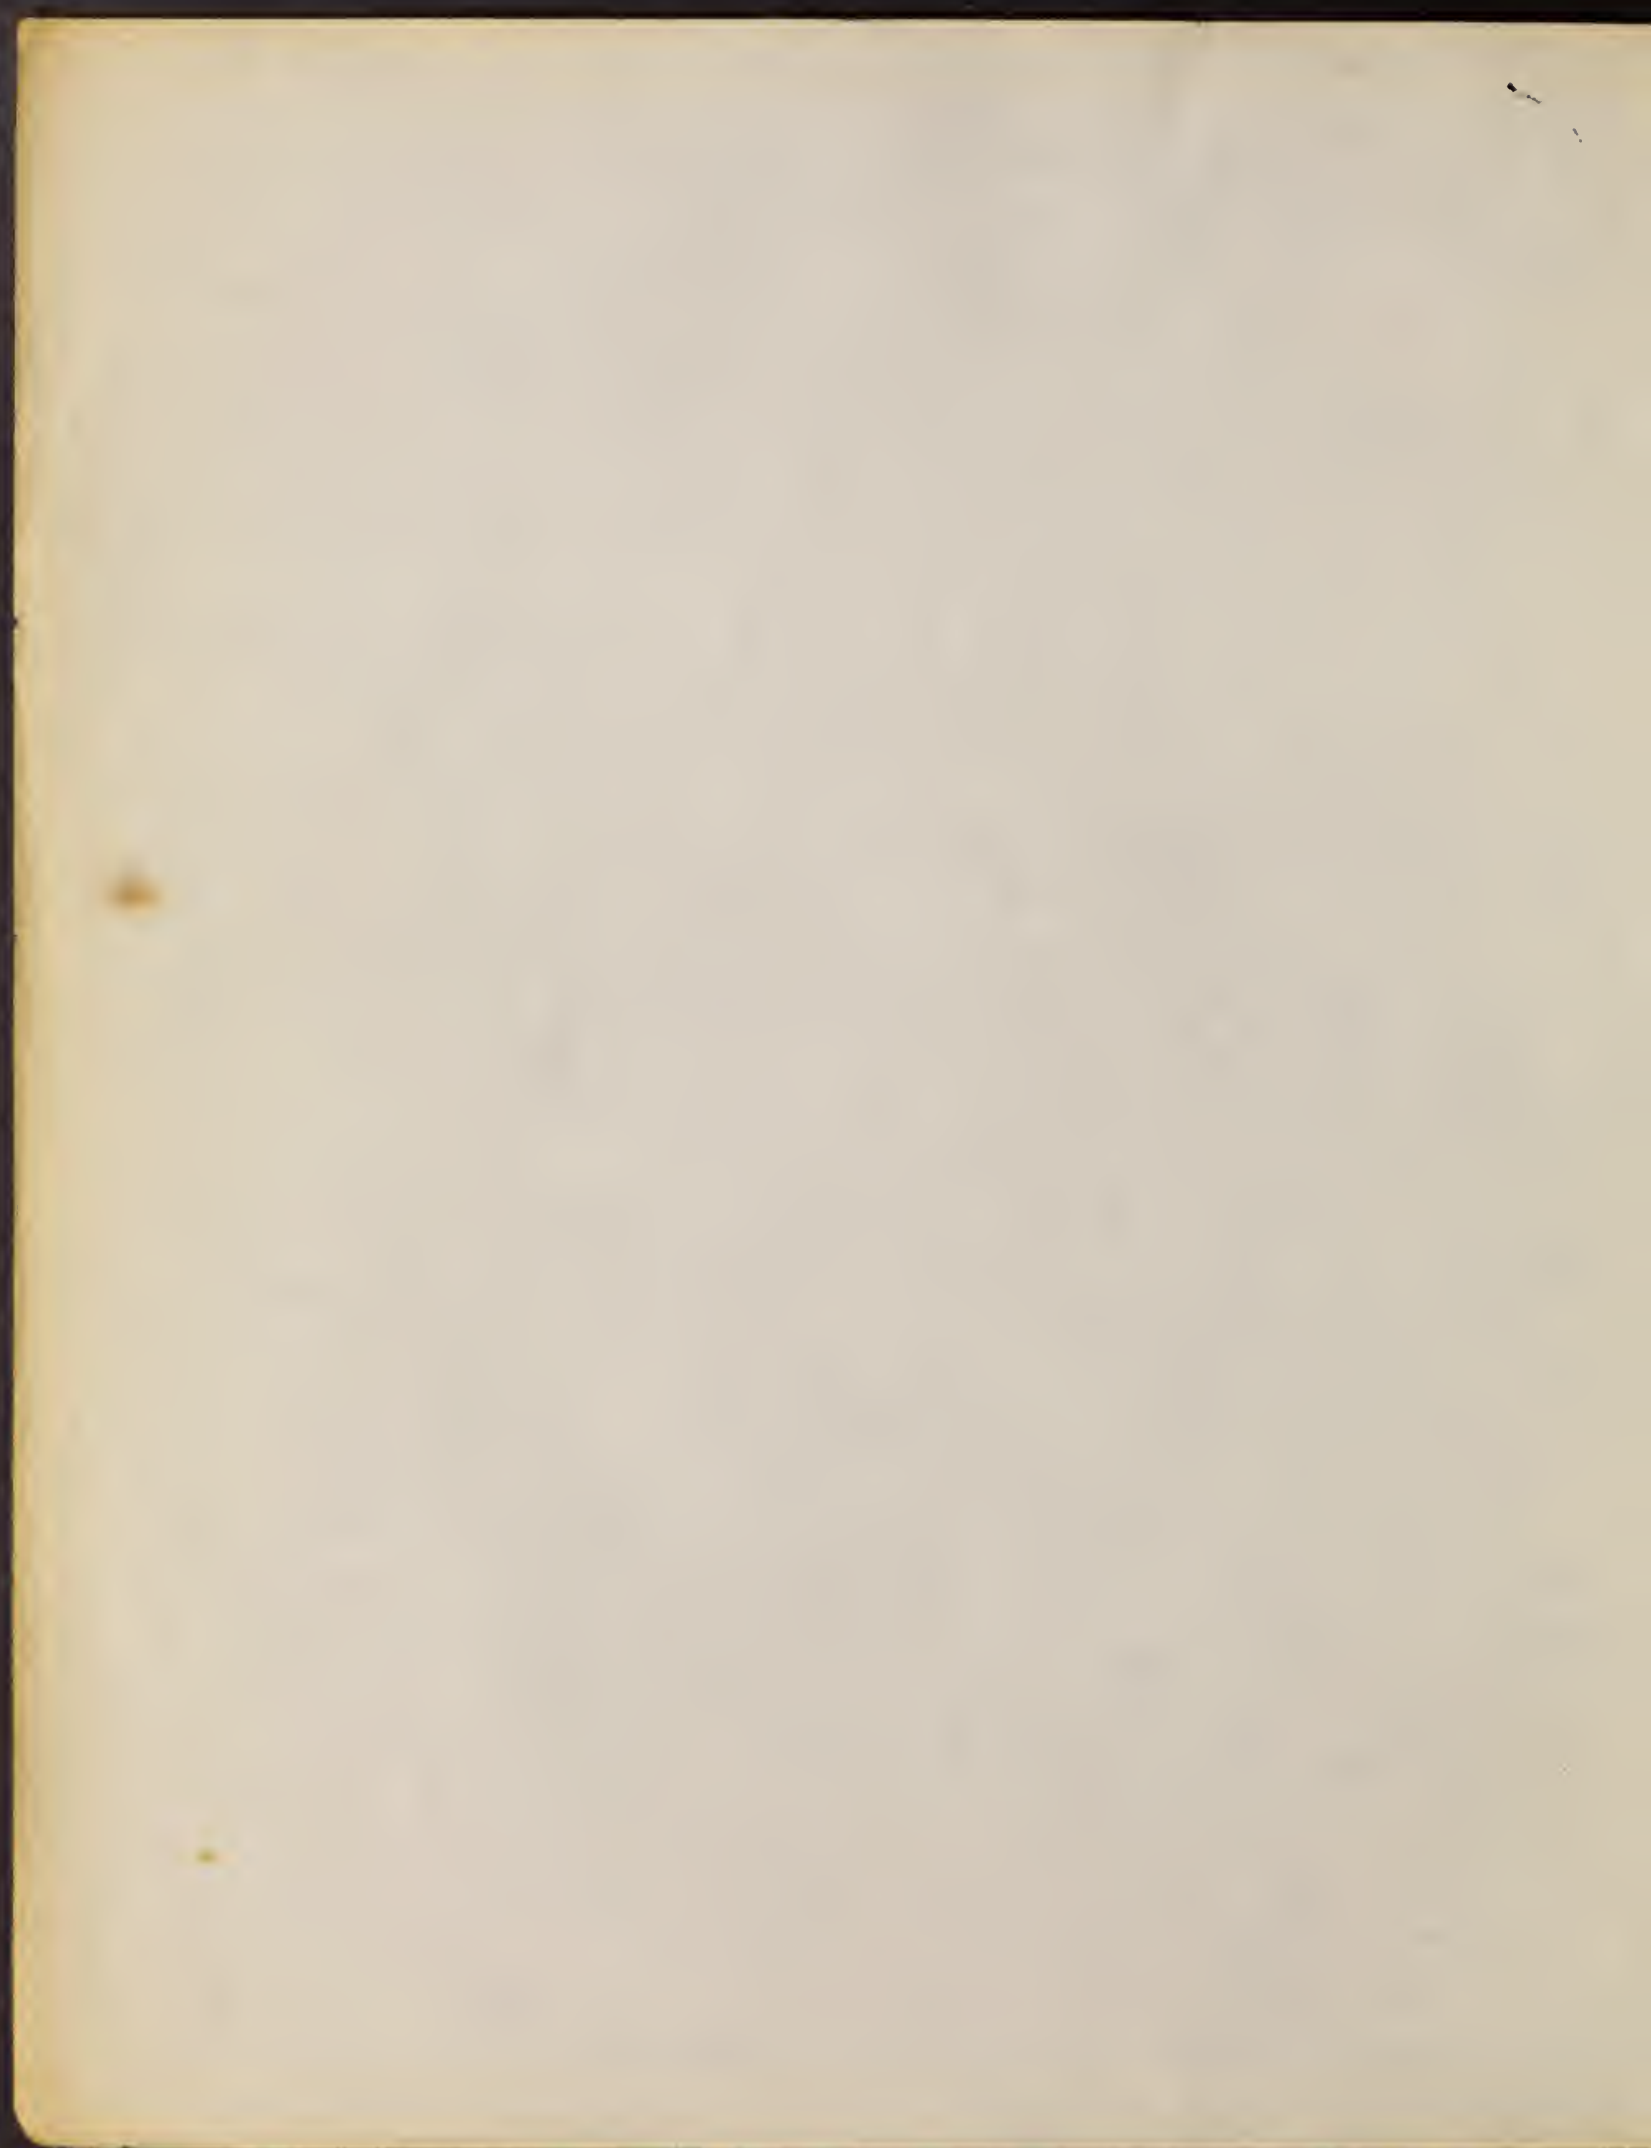

History of Christ Church Colchester 1805-1957.

Richard Pollard The Founder of Christ Church, Colchester.

Among the officials who moved from Detroit to Sandwich was one, Richard Pollard. The records of his life prior to 1796 are rather sketchy, but certain facts are available. He was born in England in 1752 and came to the New England States sometime before 1776 in which year we learn, "He got aboard a King's ship and escaped from the revolting colonies." In 1778 he is listed as a juror at a trial in Montreal of a man charged with theft which took place in Detroit. In 1782 we read of his having been in Mackinaw; 1788 a merchant trading with the Indians; 1789 appointed the first postmaster of Detroit; 1792 sworn in as sheriff of the Western District at Kingston; 1793 appointed Registrar of Essex and Kent; 1794 appointed Registrar of Surrogate Court; 1796 the Government Offices moved to Sandwich from Detroit; 1800 Sheriff of Essex, Kent; and in 1801 made Judge of the Surrogate Court.

As there was no ordained clergyman in Sandwich, it is said that Sheriff Pollard gathered the people together every Sunday in the building which served for government offices, and read the Church of England service and printed sermons. He undoubtedly felt that no community could progress without the services of an ordained man and offered himself to the Right Rev. Jacob Mountain, from England for his vast diocese, and having no training college for young men in Canada, was seeking mature men of liberal education and good report, for the work of the ministry. Sheriff Pollard was recommended by the Lieutenant Governor and the Chief Justice of Upper Canada. Of him Bishop Mountain said: "He had very satisfactory testimonials from the most respected people there, to which were added many testimonies of esteem and regard from persons of the first consideration."

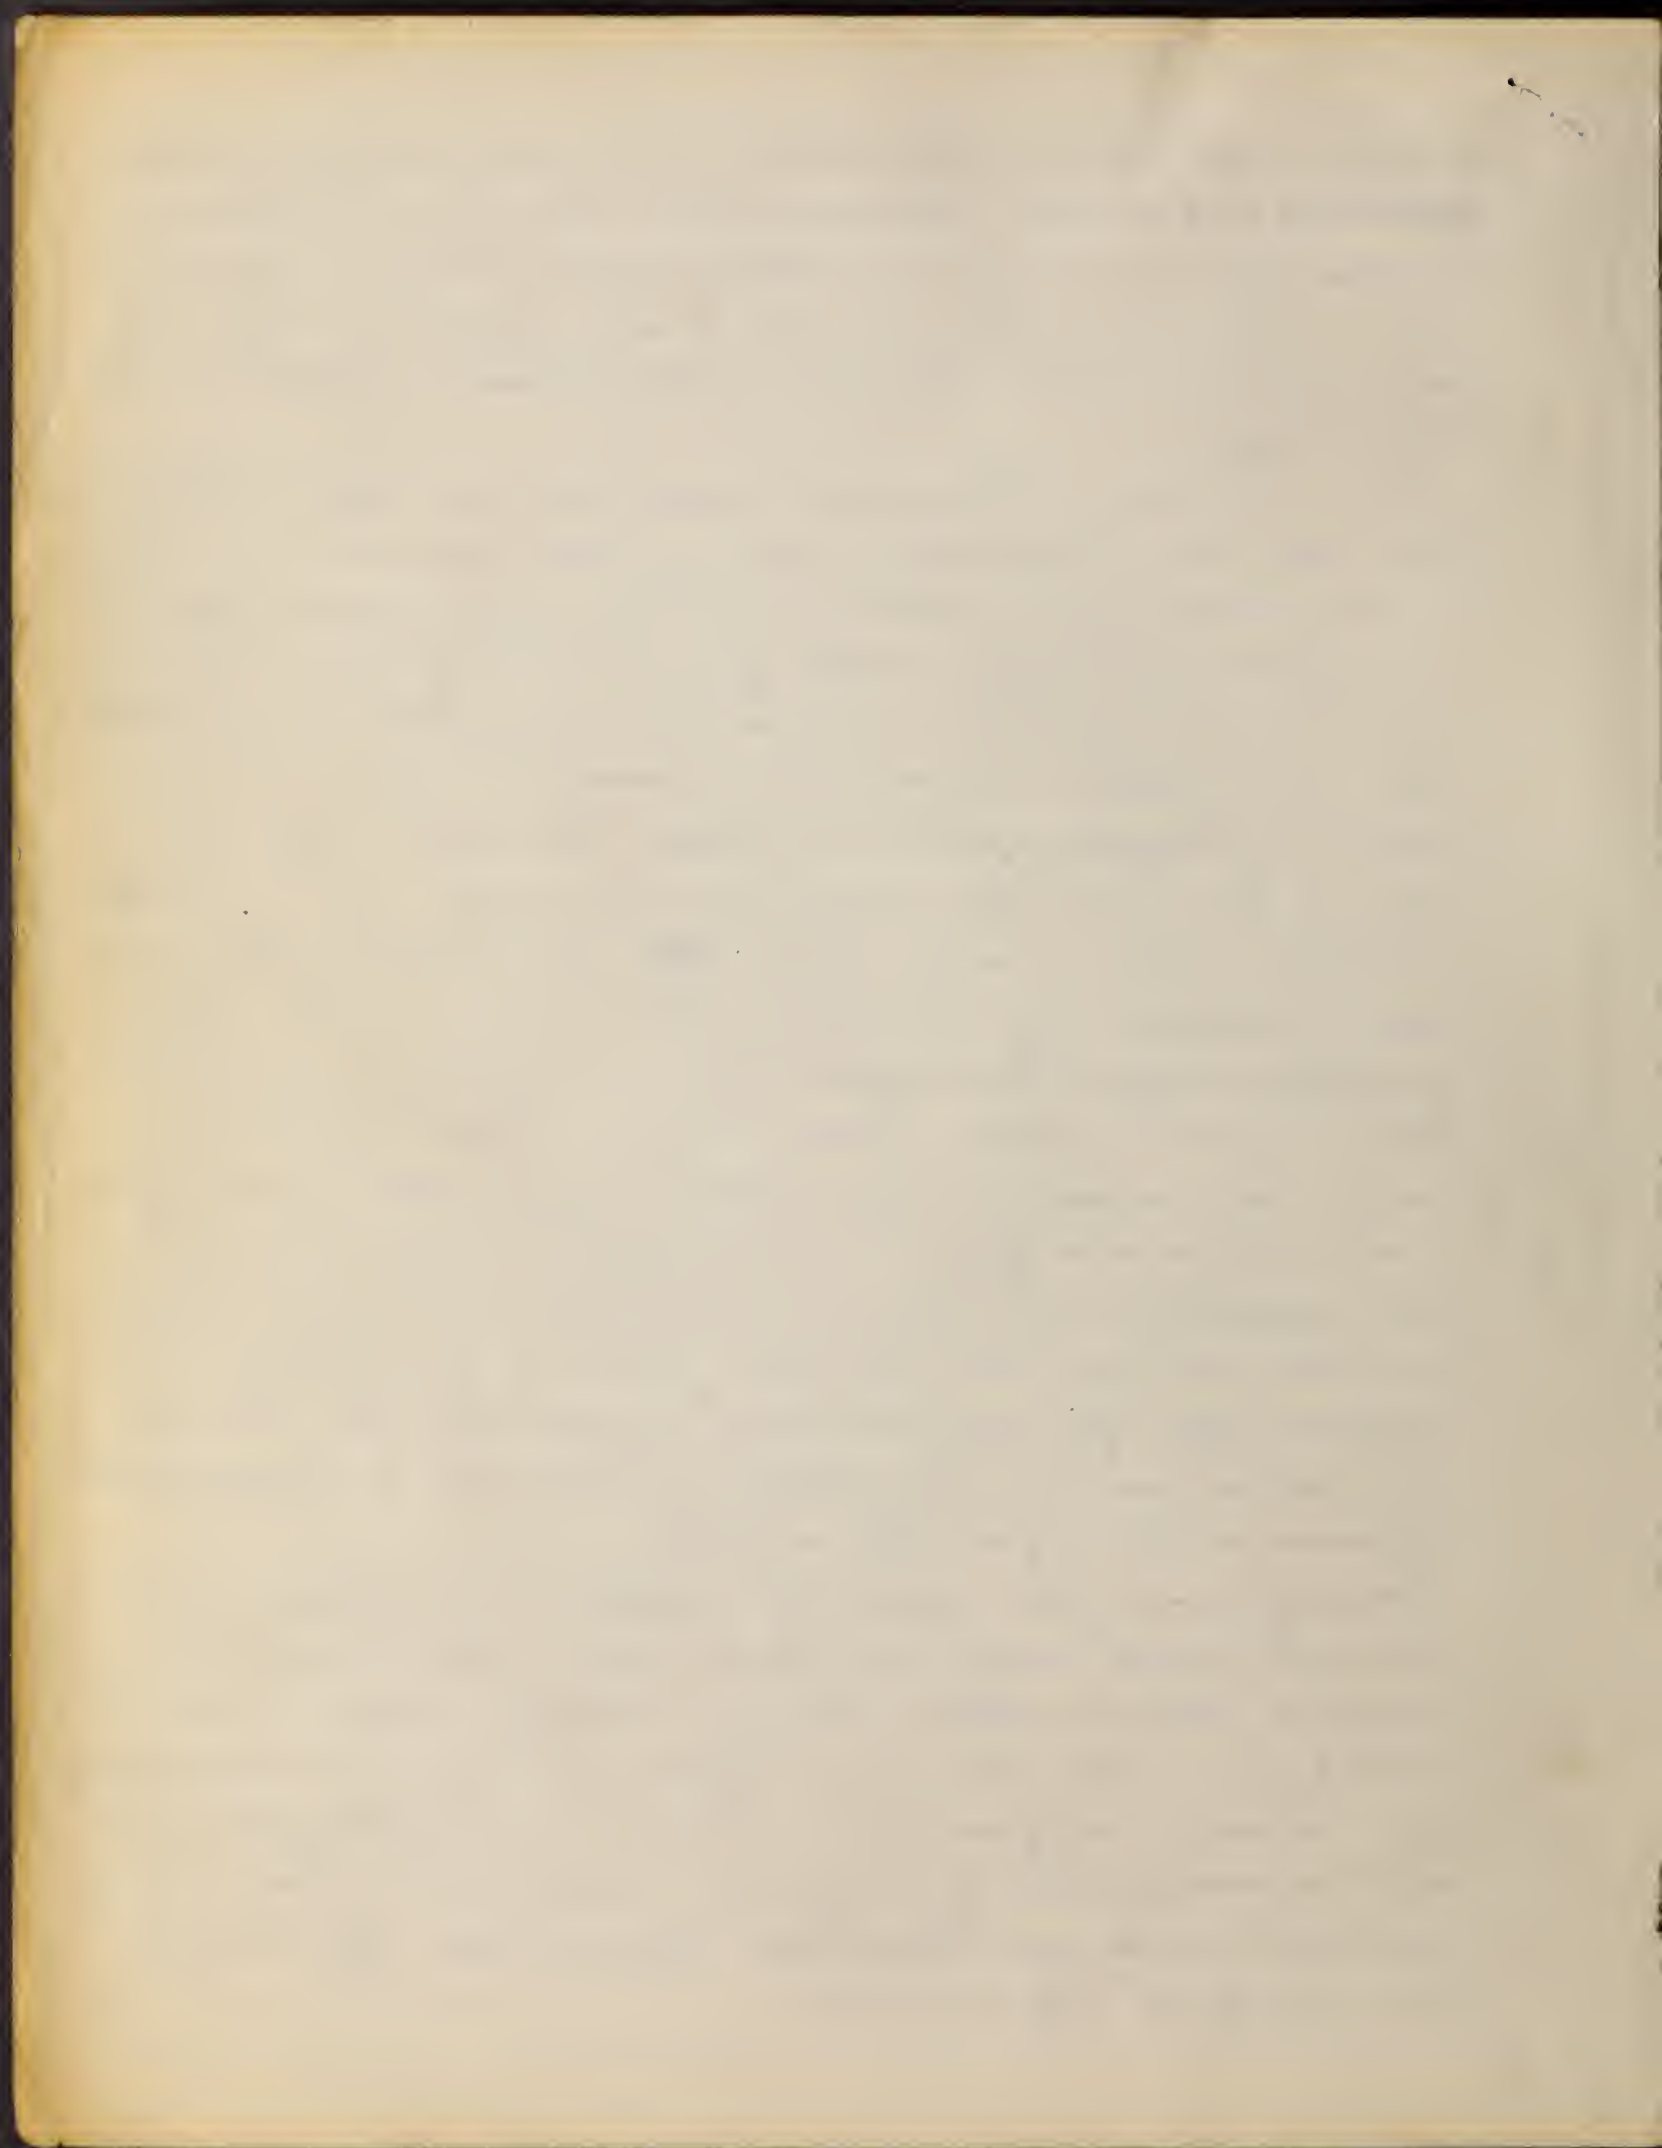

Sandwich was his headquarters and from here he ministered to congregations at Fort Malden (now included in Amherstburg) being chaplain to the militia stationed there, settlement on Lake Erie (now Colchester) and another settlement on the Thames (now Chatham). He also held services in the Indian Council House in Gladwin Park in Detroit in 1805, and more or less regularly until 1821, from which St. Paul's Cathedral and the Diocese of Michigan trace their origin.

His ministry in Sandwich seems to have been continuous from 1802 to 1824 except for two periods: (1) when he resided in Amherstburg for a short time, having received the appointment of acting chaplain to the garrison there, with lodging money and an officer's rations: (2) during the war of 1812-14 when he was taken prisoner with General Procter at the Battle of Moraviantown and later released and was allowed to go to York where he ministered for a time, also at Barton and Ancaster, and later at Ernesttown (now Bath.) and Fredericksburg. Rev. Canon McTear, one time rector of Bath, verified his signatures. A memorandum in Vol. 2 of the Parish Register reads: "The Rev. Richard Pollard, rector of Sandwich, was absent from that place from February, 1814, to June, 1815 on account of the war and was appointed and resided at Ernesttown, on the Bay of Quinte, during that period." There is no entry in the register from January 6th, 1814 to June 2nd, 1815. In 1816 Mr. Pollard received a gratuity of 100 pounds in consideration of losses suffered from the enemy.

Surely among the makers of Canada in this western peninsula of Ontario, no greater name can be found than that of Richard Pollard, soldier, lawyer, sheriff, judge, and above all, a priest of the Church of England, who spared not himself that the Gospel of Jesus Christ might be faithfully preached and the sacraments of the Church duly administered, thus laying a moral and spiritual foundation upon which true national life is built.

Dear Mr Burleigh

Thank you for thinking of me and sending me the info re - TAMAR RICHARDSON and her marriage in Hiller to Samuel Marsh in 1831.

From the enclosed tree you can see it could be either a daughter of HENRY or WILLIAM. I'll have to try to trace this further. Some days I think I'll just throw in the towel regarding the UEH Association and get on with my own family research. One thing I do know, if we are not successful in having the last annual meeting set aside, those responsible will be the recipients of my vengeance. (They ain't seen nothing yet).

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

We received your letter of the 22nd of October---on December 10th; shame on those postal workers in Canada. We wouldn't do anything like that here in the good old U.S.A!!!

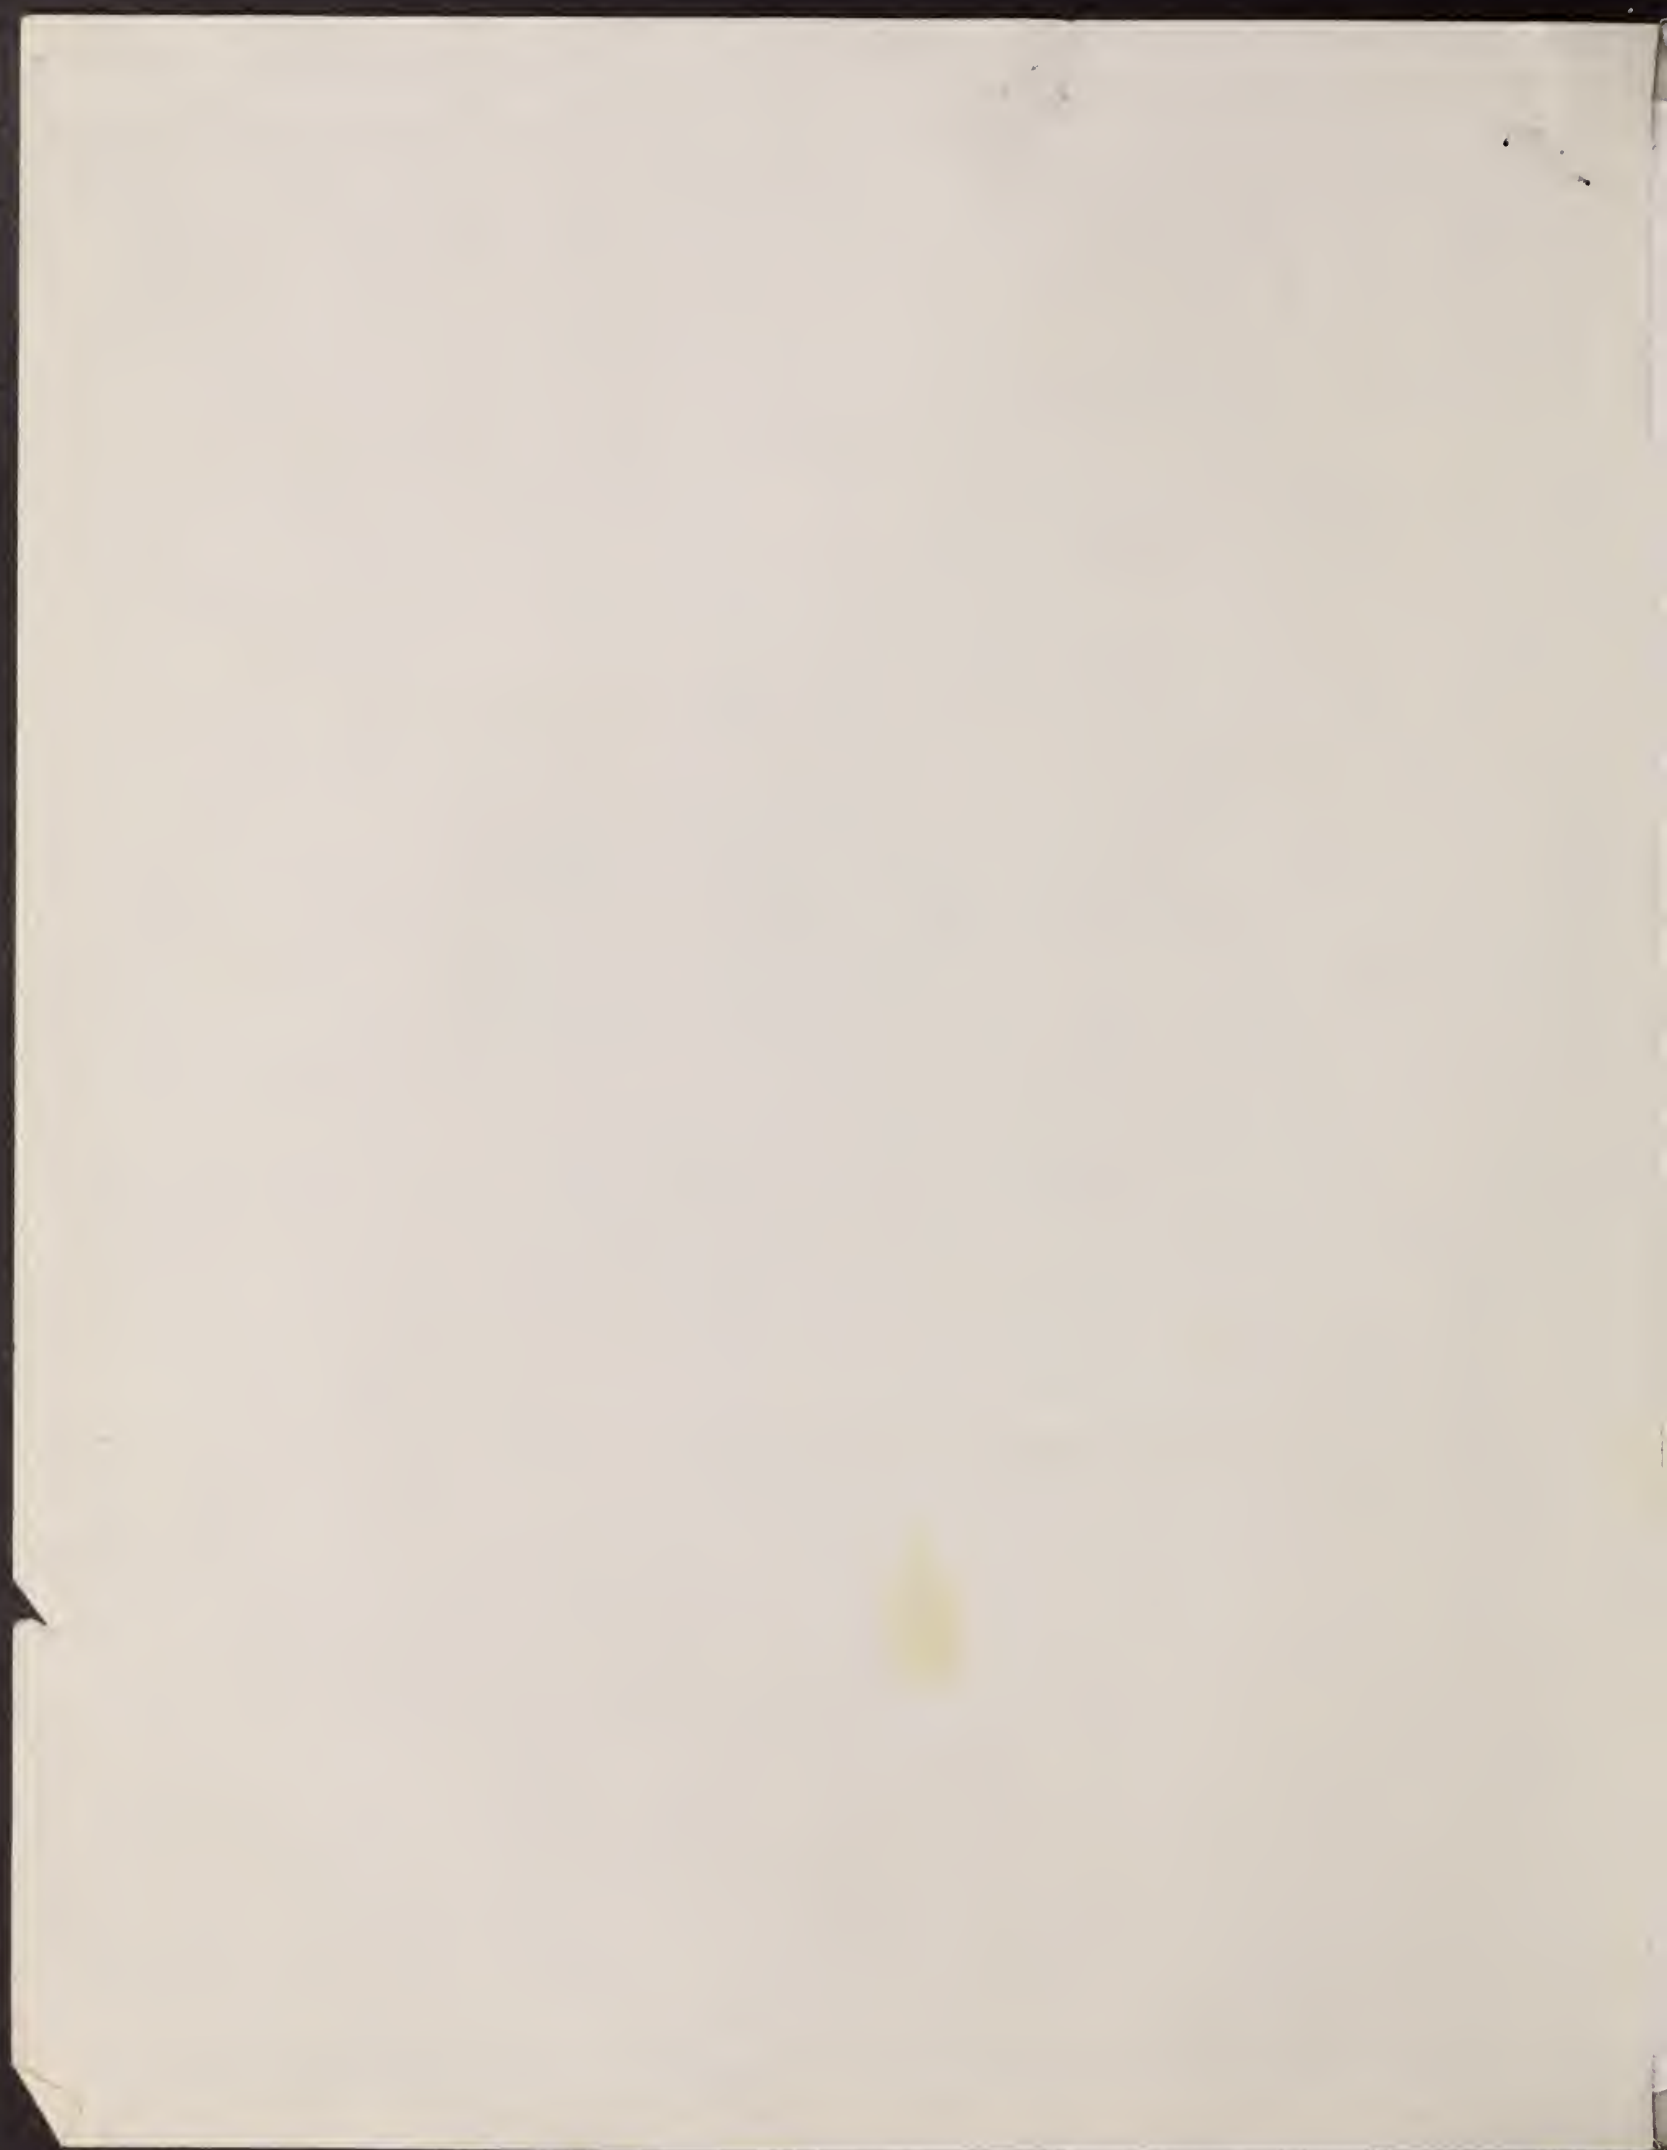

We searched the HOGEBCOM data in our files, Albany and Schenectady Settlers, by Pearson and all of our church records for Columbia County; and found a few references to your HOGEBCOM family(all spellings). We found the birth of LAURENS, October 1, 1737, his marriage to ESTHER LEGGETT, April 7, 1764, and the birth of TOBIAS, November 3, 1770 and BATHA (?), July 13, 1773, their children. We found nothing else of a specific nature in any of these records. We were quite surprised not to find any records of the births of the children of TOBIAS and LUCRETIA.

The fee for this search is $4.00, plus $.60 for the four enclosed copies, total of $4.60. Check or money order should be made payable to Mont. Co. Dept. Hist.

Thank you so kindly for your "beautiful" letter, and we will truly look forward to seeing you in the spring. In the meantime, please let us know if we may help you in any other way.

Sincerely yours,

ASSETIVE

Bath, Ontario, 2 April, 1958.

Miss Kathryn Asselstine, U. E., 74 Ellis Ave., W., Apt. 4,
Windsor, Ont.

Dear Miss Asselstine:

Please let me apologize in the name of the Bay of Quinte Branch, U. E. L. Association, for delay in replying to your kind letter.

Your letter was handed to me at our last meeting, March 12, by the President, with the request that I reply to it. I, in turn, have been slow in getting around to it.

It would be a very fine gesture on your part to furnish the Bay of Quinte Branch with a copy of your genealogy of the Asselstine family, together with various documents having to do with this family. I may say that we have a fair start on a very good genealogical library. A number of items have been donated to the Branch from the papers of Mr. Nikel, ex-mayor of Belleville, the leading spirit in the U. E. L. reunion in Belleville in 1924. These deal with a dozen or more Loyalist families scattered across the country. We are also making purchases of rare books, as well as accepting and soliciting for genealogical material which deal with Loyalists. I expect, also, to include at a future date the more than 700 files in my possession. In the meantime, I am using the information in these files to assist applicants to prove their claims.

I should like to let you know that I finally made contact with Mr. Harold Martin regarding our mutual descent from the Martin family. He had material new to me, as I had to him. So, we both had a gain by meeting and swapping notes.

I have just been looking through cemetery records ~~and~~ for burial places of Loyalists. Here are two for you, which you may have.

Ernesttown Cemetery

Peter Asselstine, died May 15, 1826, aged 84 years.

Christina Davy, his wife, died July 29, 1805, aged 53 years.

Wilton Cemetery

Susannah Asselstine, died Feb. 20, 1844, aged 82. Erected by her son, William Martin. (She was the widow of Amos Martin, U.E. the great-great-grandfather of Harold Martin and myself.

Again let me offer my apologies for delay, as well as the appreciation of the Bay of Quinte Branch for your kind offer.

Yours sincerely,

W. C. Burleigh.

Dr. Gerald Allison
President of Bay of Quinte Branch
The United Empire Loyalist Association

Dear President :- At this distance from the Association's branch I'm rather inactive, but much interested; having been born in that area & a Niagara Collegiate & student.

I've compiled a small 75 page printed bound book on our family genealogy ^{from} 1640 in America's Dutch Colony ^{N.Y.} and their entry to Canada as Loyalists.
A copy is filed in our National Archives also one in The Library of Congress U.S.A. Washington. I've saved one copy from the original 100, undecided regarding placing it in U.E. Loyalist Museum Bay of Quinte or the Lemoy & Addington Co. Historical Museum.

(I'm not aware of what can as yet be housed by our Quinte Branch Loyalist Association (or cared for))

I've listed some items I have in my possession, on a separate sheet, enclosed which might be of interest to Loyalist Association Museum, or County of Lemoy & Addington. May I have your opinion regarding placing of ^{these} items.

Our ^{early} family "ties in" with ^{Lemoy} Cole family Adolphinstown Loyalist settlers, and I believe John Fraley (Fraleigh & Fralich) an ancestor, was a messenger runner for British army in American Revolution; also ^{an} early Bay of Quinte Settler.

Respectfully Yours Kathryn Assetstine (Mrs)

Ans

Referred to meeting in Belleair when letter will be read. No doubt suggestions will be made Re. Dr. Burleigh having received some documents Suggest - that she keep her articles pending further information

Items:- Articles in my possession.

I Photostat Copy of Military Discharge paper of my great great Grandfather John Eselstine.

" John Eselstine private soldier etc served in Col. Jessops Corps

December 1783. Signed Edward Jessop, Major Commandant, Loyal Rangers.

(The original was also photographed by Ontario Provincial Archives and is on file there).

Item ii

Early Marriage licence of Upper Canada, is that of my grandfather dated June 4th/1845 states "issued in Township Camden East, Midland District; Province of Canada". It bears an affixed seal; ^{and} the Coat of Arms of England at top of paper and a signature I cannot decipher ^{at the} end; also the signature of T.S. Harrington and Alex. Campbell.

This paper license is ^a ~~quite~~ tattered at edges but readily readable (in need of careful handling)

Item iii
^{Loyalist} A photo of Nicholas Asselstine grandson of John. Nicholas born 1805 lived & died in Fredricksburg Township, Lennox & Addington
His apparel is interesting. (Co.)

Note: The Land Records of Ontario spelled the name with an "A" but period of 1750 to 1800 spelled Eselstine & Jasselstine & in 1645 spelled Van Ysselsteyn in New York (New Amsterdam Records).
The name in North America since 1640.
